

Sing a Song of Eastertide

*Sing a song of Eastertide,
Wherever you may be,
God's love is greater than earthly woes,
Wider than the most majestic sea.
Not long ago, in this historic 2020 year,
The music of life was playing along,
We could hug outside our homes, people we hold dear.
Til' an invisible enemy hit the mute button, "Bam!"
Forcing us to reach out and connect virtually.
Still, Jesus remains our rock and redeemer, our lamb.
So, sing a song of Eastertide
Wherever you may be; God's love endures, twas ever thus.
Remember as we find joy living amidst such horror,
The word "virus" begins with "v" for "victory," and ends with "us."*

*Barbara Cleary
April, 2020*